

Giver Chapter 15

What was the worst memory that the Giver had?

Giver Chapter 16

The memory of the birthday party was good because now Jonas understood the joy of celebrating being an _____

What did he like about the paintings in the museum?

What feeling did he come to understand after being with the brown horse by the stream?

What did he learn about when he sat by the campfire?

What was the Giver's favorite memory?

What word did Jonas understand after seeing this?

Who were the old people in the memory?

After the kids grow up in the community where do the adults go before they go to the House of Old?

What word is inappropriate to use in the community? Jonas asks his mother and Father if they feel this towards him.

What does Jonas stop doing every morning?

